

Hello:

I am a realtor. If I see a for sale by owner next door to my house, I cannot, in WI, call them without checking the do not call list. I can buy such names "scrubbed" from companies that sell lists for a fee.

If I could look up the numbers on a web site that would be fine. I did not take in enough income last year to pay the fine for one violation. In WI this law goes way beyond what the authors intended. This law, as applied, makes no sense if you are a small businessman trying to make a living!
